2024 Regular Session
Kentucky General Assembly
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Rules of Procedure

Adopted January 2, 2024

Rule 1. Hours of Meeting. The House shall meet at times set by the Committee on Committees.

Rule 2. Quorum. A majority of the members elected to the House shall constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not present at the time fixed for a meeting of the House, five members may adjourn or recess from day to day or from time to time and fifteen members may order a call of the House and send for absent members.

On any session day during which remote voting is authorized under House Rule 67A or alternative voting is authorized under House Rule 68A, the determination of a quorum shall include those members physically present in the House Chamber, as well as those members physically present in their Capitol Annex office or in their automobile on the Capitol Campus, as applicable, and whose presence has been verified by the Speaker or other presiding officer under Rule 26 through appropriate means, including but not limited to a video call in which the member's face can be seen.

Rule 3. Call of the House. Upon a call of the House, the Clerk shall call the roll. Absentees are then only noted, but no excuses shall be made until the full roll is called. The Clerk shall then call the absentees again. Excuses will be heard at this time. The doors of the House Chamber shall then be closed and the absentees not excused by the House may be sent for and arrested by the Sergeant-at-Arms and the House shall determine upon what conditions they shall be discharged from arrest. Members who voluntarily appear shall be immediately admitted to the floor of the House and names returned upon the Journal as present unless the House otherwise directs. Excuses for leaves of absence must receive a consent approval of two-thirds of the members elected.

On any session day during which remote voting is authorized under House Rule 67A or alternative voting is authorized under House Rule 68A, any member physically present in the House Chamber or any member physically present in their Capitol Annex office or in their automobile on the Capitol Campus, as applicable, and whose presence has been verified by the Speaker or other presiding officer under Rule 26 through appropriate means, including but not limited to a video call in which the member's face can be seen, shall be permitted to answer the convening roll call.

1. Invocation.
2. Pledge of Allegiance.
3. Roll Call.
4. Reading and Approval of the Journal.
5. Introduction of Guests.
6. Second Reading of Bills.

13. Adjournment.

Under the order of business Introduction of Guests, the Majority Caucus Chair and the Minority Caucus Chair shall be recognized to read a cumulative list of the guests for the day. No more than 30 minutes shall be allotted to Motions, Petitions, Communications, and Announcements.

Rule 4A. Order of Business on First Day of the 2023 Legislative Session. The order of business on the first day of the 2023 Regular Session shall be as follows:

1. Invocation.
2. Pledge of Allegiance.
3. Certificate of Election.

13. Introduction of Bills and Resolutions.

14. Meeting and Report of the Committee on Committees and the Rules Committee.
15. Introduction of Floor Amendments.
16. Adjournment.

Rule 5. Unfinished Business. Unfinished business which was being considered upon adjournment shall have precedence in the class of business to which it properly belongs upon the next succeeding legislative day.

MOTIONS

Rule 6. Reading of Motions. When a motion has been made and seconded, it shall be stated by the Speaker, or, being in written form, it shall be read by the Clerk before debate, amendment or motion concerning it shall be in order.

Rule 7. Withdrawal of Motions. Every oral motion after it has been stated by the Speaker, and every written motion, bill, resolution or other paper, after it has been read by the Clerk, shall be the property and in the possession of the House and shall not be withdrawn without consent of the House. Every written motion, report or measure may be committed or recommitted at the pleasure of the House.

Rule 8. Order of Questions. All questions, whether in Committee of the Whole or in the House, when not privileged questions, shall be propounded in the order in which they were moved, except that in filling blanks the smallest sum and the most remote date shall be put first.

Rule 9. Precedence of Motions. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be in order except:

1. To call the House when there is no quorum present.
2. To fix the time to which the House shall adjourn.
3. To adjourn.
4. To take recess.
5. To lay on the table.
6. For the previous question.
7. To limit or extend limits of debate.
8. To postpone to a fixed time.
9. To lay on the Clerk's desk.
10. To refer or commit.
11. To amend.
12. To postpone indefinitely.

The above several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged and the first seven of them shall not be debatable.

A second motion to adjourn, to take a recess, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to limit or extend limits of debate, to postpone to a time certain, to lay on the Clerk's desk, to refer or commit or to postpone indefinitely shall not be in order on the same day, upon the same question, and at the same status unless other business intervenes; provided, however, that amendments may be made to the time to which it is proposed to adjourn, to take a recess or to postpone to a fixed time.

Rule 10. Motion to Adjourn. A motion to adjourn, to take a recess, or a motion to adjourn to a time certain, shall always be in order, except when a member is speaking, while a vote is being taken or when the Committee on Committees is reporting; subject, however, to the limitations set out in Rule 9. A motion to adjourn or a motion to adjourn to a time certain shall be taken by roll call vote, unless the motion is made after the House has reached adjournment in the order of business under Rule 4, in which case adjournment shall be by voice vote unless a roll call is ordered by a majority of the members.

Rule 11. Motion to Table. The adoption of the motion to table, under these rules, defeats the subject matter under consideration. The reconsideration of the motion to table shall require approval of a majority of the members elected.

Rule 12. Previous Question. The previous question may be ordered by a three-fifths majority of the members elected. On the call of the roll, and subject to any motion to limit debate, no member shall be allowed to speak more than two minutes to explain a vote, and no more than one minute if the member has already spoken on the measure, and shall not speak at all if the question is not a debatable question. The effect of the previous question shall be to put an end to debate on any pending amendment; to prevent the offering of additional amendments and to bring the House to an immediate vote upon any amendment that has been called and is in order. Once the previous question has been ordered, and any pending amendment has been voted upon, all debate shall cease and the House shall immediately vote on the main question.

Rule 13. Motion to Set the Limits on Debate. A motion to set a time limit for debate on a measure, which may include a time limit for explanation of votes, in excess of that permitted under Rule 12, shall be in order unless the previous question shall have been ordered on the measure. The time limit set for debate and explanation of votes under this rule shall be allotted by the Speaker evenly between the opponents of the measure and the proponents of the measure. Adoption of a motion under this rule does not prevent the offering of additional amendments.

Rule 14. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider a vote shall not be in order unless made by a member who voted upon the prevailing side of the question, nor shall that motion be in order unless made within two legislative days in which the House is in session next after the date the vote was taken and the bill or resolution is in the possession of the House; however, the motion to reconsider when coupled with the additional motion to lay that motion upon the table may be made by any member. For purposes of this rule, a member who is recorded as “not voting” on a proposition which failed is considered to have voted on the prevailing side. Procedural motions, such as a motion to lay on the table or lay on the clerk’s desk, shall not be subject to a motion to reconsider.

Rule 15. Motion to Lay on Clerk’s Desk. The effect of the adoption of a motion to lay on the Clerk’s desk under these rules is to place in charge of the Clerk the pending question and everything adhering to it. A motion laid on the Clerk’s desk may be taken from the desk and proceeded with at any time in the same order as when laid on the Clerk’s desk.

Rule 16. Motion to Strike Out Enacting Clause. A motion to amend by striking out the enacting words of a bill or resolution shall have precedence over a motion to amend; and, if adopted, shall have the same effect as though the bill or resolution were regularly voted upon and rejected.

Rule 17. Motion to Separate Part of a Measure. A motion to commit, recommit, or postpone a part of a measure so as to separate that part of the measure from the remainder shall not be in order.

Rule 18. Postponement of Measure. When a measure shall have been postponed indefinitely it shall not be in order again during the session.

Rule 19. Reading of Pending Papers. Any pending bill, resolution, motion or report shall be read upon the request of any member, with the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to the House, but it shall not again be read on the same day unless so ordered by the House.

Rule 20. Nominations. In all elections a previous nomination shall be made.

MEMBERS

Rule 21. Attendance of Members. No member shall be absent from a session of the House without leave from the House. For the purposes of this rule, a member shall be considered present if the member is in his or her Capitol Annex office during any session when remote voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 67A or if the member is in his or her automobile on the Capitol Campus during any session when alternative voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 68A.

Rule 22. Decorum of Members. No member shall designate another member by name. All members shall treat fellow members with the utmost courtesy and respect. All members' remarks in debate shall be confined to the subject under debate, avoiding personality. A sign, poster, or any other object, the purpose of which can be reasonably construed to indicate support or opposition to any measure before the House, and which is large enough to be generally visible from the chair, shall not be displayed in the House Chamber, or in a member's Capitol Annex office during any session when remote voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 67A, by any member while the House is in session.

Rule 22A. Point of Personal Privilege. To be in order, a point of personal privilege must relate to allegations regarding the rights, reputation, or conduct of a member personally, in the member's capacity as a representative, that, if true, would incapacitate them for membership. Members who have the floor after claiming a point of personal privilege shall confine themselves to defending their own rights, reputations, or conduct, and not those of other members. Members wishing to make general comments about pending legislation, media coverage, or other matters that would be out of order if raised as a point of personal privilege shall use Motions, Petitions, Communications, and Announcements.

Rule 22B. Required Training. Each member of the House shall complete workplace harassment prevention training at the beginning of each session of the General Assembly.

Rule 23. Call to Order. If any member, in speech or otherwise, transgresses the rules of order or decorum, the member shall immediately be called to order by the chair and shall be seated. After hearing a short explanation from the member called to order, or upon the withdrawal of the objectionable language, the Speaker may permit the member to proceed, or may compel silence upon the member until the matter is disposed of. The ruling of the chair shall be subject to an appeal to the House. A member offending the House shall be liable to censure.

Rule 24. Debate. No member may speak more than once to the same subject until all members desiring to be heard have spoken, but nothing in this rule shall do away with the previous question if then in effect, nor permit debate on an undebatable motion.

No member shall speak more than thirty minutes in the aggregate on any question or measure, at the end of which period, or any portion thereof, the floor shall be returned to the Speaker.

Rule 25. Members Shall Vote at Seats. Except when remote voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 67A or alternative voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 68A, a member shall vote only when at the member's seat or visibly approaching it.

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Rule 26. Duties of Speaker. The Speaker shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour fixed for the meeting of the House and on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read, unless the reading of the same is dispensed with by the House.

The Speaker shall preserve decorum and order and, in the event of any disorder in the gallery or in the House Chamber, may cause the same to be cleared of any persons creating disturbances or disorders.

All writs, warrants, subpoenas or other processes shall be signed by the officer who may be presiding over the House when the paper is issued; and the presiding officer's signature shall be attested by the Clerk, when ordered by a majority of the members.

Any reference made to the Speaker in these rules shall refer to the Speaker of the House or, in the proper context, any member, including the Speaker Pro Tempore, who is acting as the presiding officer.

Rule 27. Appeal from Decision of Chair. The Speaker while presiding may speak to points of order in preference to members. The Speaker shall decide points of order and manner of procedure. If two or more members arise from their respective seats and address the chair, the Speaker shall determine who was first and recognize that member.

Any decision made by the Speaker shall be subject to appeal to the House. Every appeal shall be in writing and signed by at least two members. During the pendency of an appeal to the House from a decision of the chair, the Speaker shall vacate the chair and call the Speaker Pro Tempore to preside. When the Speaker Pro Tempore is presiding on an appeal to the House from a decision of the Chair, no motion or business shall be in order except the motion on appeal from the decision of the Chair, and that motion shall not be debatable. The ruling of the Speaker shall be sustained unless a majority of the members elected to the House oppose the ruling.

For purposes of an appeal, the Chair includes the Speaker, Speaker Pro Tempore, or other designee of the Speaker or Speaker Pro Tempore, or other member serving as Chair in the absence of the Speaker or Speaker Pro Tempore.

Rule 28. Speaker Pro Tempore. The House shall elect a Speaker Pro Tempore. The Speaker Pro Tempore shall perform the duties of the Speaker in the absence of the Speaker or when empowered by the Speaker to perform the duties of the Chair.

Rule 29. Duties of the Clerk. The Clerk shall have charge of all clerical, technical and procedural matters which relate to legislation including but not limited to: notification of committees of their appointment and business referred to them; keeping a calendar showing such bills as are entitled to their second reading each day, distinguishing between House and Senate bills; supervising the engrossing and enrolling of bills; and such other matters as are assigned by the Committee on Committees. The Clerk shall read to the House papers ordered to be read; call the roll and note the answers of members when a question is taken by yeas and nays; assist the Speaker in taking the count when any vote of the House is taken; attest all writs, warrants, and subpoenas issued by order of the House; certify to the passage of all bills and to the adoption of all joint and concurrent resolutions by the General Assembly; and make all reports to the Senate. The Clerk shall perform such other duties as are assigned by the Committee on Committees.

Rule 29A. Duties of the Legislative Research Commission. The Legislative Research Commission staff shall have charge of clerical and administrative functions as assigned by the Clerk and shall cooperate with the Clerk to facilitate the work of the House.

Rule 30. Journal of Proceedings. The Clerk shall cause to be kept the Journal of the proceedings of the House. The Clerk shall note upon the Journal all questions of order, together with the disposition of same, and the dates upon which all bills and resolutions were sent to committee and returned to the House. The House may correct errors in the Journal the day the Journal containing errors is presented to the House. No record which is in the hands of the Clerk and is required by law to be entered upon the Journal of the House shall be copied by any person until same shall have been entered upon the Journal and that Journal shall have been approved.

Half an hour before the time fixed for the meeting of the House each day, the Clerk or an assistant shall be present at the Clerk's desk with the Journal of the preceding session for inspection of any member of the House.

The Clerk or an assistant shall transmit the Journal for each day, as soon as it has been approved by the House, to the Legislative Research Commission, which shall deliver it to the public printer. The Commission staff shall proofread and index the Journal upon return from the printer and make necessary typographical corrections.

Rule 31. Custody of Papers. The Clerk shall have custody of all records, minutes, reports, and documents pertaining to legislation, and shall not allow them to be taken from his or her possession without the leave of the House, unless to be delivered to the chair of a committee to which they have been referred or to the Legislative Research Commission. The Clerk shall cause to be enclosed on bills and papers brief notes of proceedings had thereon by the House and preserve the same in convenient files for reference. The Director of the Legislative Research Commission shall implement a policy to provide for the maintenance and distribution of the records, papers, and bills of the legislative branch.

Rule 33. Printing of House Papers. The Legislative Research Commission shall have supervision and charge of all printing done for the House as certified by the Clerk and the public printer shall print only such documents and other matter as the Legislative Research Commission authorizes. The Clerk shall report to the Speaker every failure to execute printing work correctly and promptly.

Rule 34. Duties of the Sergeant-at-Arms. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms and the Doorkeeper to exclude or remove all persons not entitled to the floor of the House. One hour before convening of the House each day the Sergeant-at-Arms shall announce in a loud, distinct voice: "All persons not entitled to the floor of the House under the rules thereof will now vacate the House Chamber." The Sergeant-at-Arms shall then compel all persons who are not entitled to remain therein to leave the House Chambers and shall prohibit their entry until one hour after the House has adjourned.

Rule 35. Appointment and Conduct of Constitutional Employees. The constitutional employees of the House shall be appointed by election during the regular sessions of the General Assembly and shall serve one year terms or until the election of their successors.

All the constitutional employees of the House, shall, one hour before the meeting of the House each day, report to the Clerk, who shall report to the Committee on Committees whether or not all of the employees are on duty. The Committee on Committees, whenever it deems it necessary, shall report to the House any dereliction of duty.

Rule 36. Other Employees. All other professional, clerical and other services required by the House or its committees shall be furnished by the Legislative Research Commission, upon the request of the Committee on Committees. Employees performing such services shall be under the supervision of the Committee on Committees.

No officer or employee of the House shall receive any fee, tip or compensation from any member and violation of this rule shall be ground for dismissal.

Rule 37. Committee on Committees. There shall be a Committee on Committees composed of the Speaker of the House, the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority Caucus Chair, the Majority Floor Leader of the House, the Majority Whip, the Minority Floor Leader of the House, the Minority Caucus Chair, and the Minority Whip. Rule 41. Rules Committee. There shall be a Rules Committee composed of the Speaker of the House, the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority Floor Leader, the Majority Caucus Chair, the Majority Whip, the Minority Floor Leader, the Minority Caucus Chair, and the Minority Whip. All bills and resolutions having been reported out of the committee to which referred and having received their second reading shall be referred to the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee may refer any bill or resolution before it back to a standing committee. If a bill which includes incarceration as a possible penalty has been received by the Rules Committee from a standing committee other than the Committee on Judiciary, the bill shall be referred to the Committee on Judiciary. No bill or resolution shall be referred back by the Rules Committee on more than one occasion. All meetings of the Rules Committee shall be open. In the event of a vacancy on the Rules Committee, the other remaining members of the majority or minority party's leadership serving on the Rules Committee may determine whether there is a vacancy on the Rules Committee and shall appoint a replacement for that member.

The Majority Floor Leader shall while the Rules Committee is in session call bills and resolutions for consideration by the Rules Committee. A bill or resolution may be placed for consideration in the first order of business at the next regular Rules Committee meeting by a majority of the membership voting for such consideration.

Each member shall be given an opportunity upon request to appear before the Rules Committee when a bill of which the member is a sponsor or co-sponsor is under consideration including the subsequent vote thereon. No measure shall be posted in the Orders of the Day for final passage except by order of the Rules Committee unless otherwise ordered posted for the next succeeding legislative day by a majority of the members voting. The Rules Committee shall arrange the Orders of the Day so that all measures shall appear thereon for the consideration of the House, but the Rules Committee may not place in the Orders of the Day any bill or other measure in the possession of a standing or special committee of the House. The Rules Committee, prior to each day's session, shall post a notice in a regular place in the House Chamber listing the bills to be considered that day in the Orders of the Day. Should the House not complete any day's Orders of the Day, the bills and resolutions remaining unconsidered shall go to the top of the Orders of the Day on the next day that Orders of the Day are considered.

The Speaker of the House shall be the Chair of the Rules Committee. The Majority Floor Leader of the House shall act for the Rules Committee in calling from the Orders of the Day any bills or resolutions in the order the Majority Floor Leader deems proper and shall be recognized by the Speaker for that purpose during all times that the Rules Committee is in charge of posting the Orders of the Day. The Speaker Pro Tempore shall act as chair in the absence of the Speaker.

Rule 42. Liaison Subcommittees. The Committee on Appropriations and Revenue shall be divided into the following eight standing subcommittees of no more than ten members each:

1. Subcommittee on Economic Development, Public Protection, Tourism and Energy;
2. Subcommittee on Personnel, Public Retirement and Finance;

3. Subcommittee on General Government;
4. Subcommittee on Justice, Public Safety and Judiciary;
5. Subcommittee on Primary and Secondary Education and Workforce Development;
6. Subcommittee on Postsecondary Education;
7. Subcommittee on Transportation;
8. Subcommittee on Health and Family Services.

The Committee on Committees shall appoint to each standing subcommittee no more than four members of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue and no more than six members from the membership of one or more of the remaining standing committees of the House. No member of the Committee on Committees shall serve as a member of a liaison subcommittee. A member of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue shall serve on no more than one standing subcommittee. The chair of each standing subcommittee shall be appointed by the Committee on Committees from among the members of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue serving on the particular standing subcommittee.

The liaison subcommittee members of a standing subcommittee shall have full voting authority in all matters before a standing subcommittee.

The Committee on Committees may assign the chair of a standing committee as an ex officio non-voting member of a standing subcommittee. The chairman and vice chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue shall serve as ex officio members of each standing subcommittee.

Rule 42A. Budget Review. The standing budget review subcommittees shall notify the membership of the standing substantive committees whose jurisdictional area will be affected by their action of any meetings or hearings and the members of the standing committees may participate as non-voting members.

When the budget review subcommittees have concluded their hearings and formulated their recommendations they shall communicate their recommendations to the affected standing committee or committees who may thereafter file a written response to the recommendations, which response shall be transmitted to the full Committee on Appropriations and Revenue with the subcommittee recommendations.

When the full Committee on Appropriations and Revenue has reported the final budget bill or bills to the floor, it shall notify the affected standing committees of the content of the budget relating to their areas of jurisdiction.

The Rules Committee shall not post for passage any budget bill less than one day after the bill has been finally reported out of committee, and no budget bill or amendment thereto shall be voted upon without providing at least twenty-four hours for review after the bill is posted for passage.

Rule 43. Enrollment Committee. The Committee on Committees shall appoint an Enrollment Committee of not more than seven members. The Enrollment Committee shall be responsible for the engrossment and enrollment of bills and resolutions.

Rule 44. Conference Committees. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and the House refuses to concur in the amendment, or when a Senate bill has been amended in the House and the Senate refuses to concur in the amendment and when neither will recede from that action, the Committee on Committees shall appoint a Conference Committee to meet a like committee from the Senate. The Conference Committee shall confer with the Senate Committee and report back to the House within a reasonable time, in the same manner as reports are made for House bills. The conference report shall make no recommendation other than agreement upon or rejection of the matter or matters in controversy, and shall be voted upon, and, if adopted the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage.

Should a conference committee report its inability to submit a report, or if either house refuses to adopt its report, each house may appoint a free conference committee, consisting of three or more members. A free conference committee shall propose no new appropriation or any appropriation above the level originally designed by either chamber. The free conference report shall be voted on, and if adopted, the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage.

A conference committee or free conference committee report shall be signed by a majority from each house or it shall not be in order.

Where both majority and minority conference or free conference reports are submitted, a motion to adopt the majority report shall first be considered and a motion to adopt a minority report shall not be in order unless a motion to adopt the majority report fails. Once the majority or minority report is adopted, the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage.

Rule 44A. Majority and Minority Caucuses.

The Majority Caucus of the House of Representatives shall consist of all House members of majority party affiliation. The Minority Caucus of the House of Representatives shall consist of all House members of minority party affiliation. The majority and minority caucuses of the House of Representatives shall be committees, other than standing committees, of the House of Representatives and General Assembly.

Rule 45. Meetings of Committees. No committee except the Committee on Committees, the Enrollment Committee and a Conference Committee between the House and the Senate shall sit while the House is in session, unless by consent of the House. The Committee on Committees and Enrollment Committee may report at any time except during roll call or while a vote is being taken.

The Committee on Committees, in conference with committee chairs, shall schedule a definite time and place for the regular weekly meetings of each committee, and that schedule shall be posted in the House Chamber and published in the Legislative Record. A committee shall meet at the regular weekly scheduled time and place so long as business is pending before the committee. The Chair or a majority of any committee may call a special meeting in addition to those regularly scheduled.

The Chair shall keep a record of the attendance of members at meetings, which record shall be filed with the Clerk.

The Director of the Legislative Research Commission, under the direction of the Committee on Committees, shall assign a secretary to each committee and provide any professional, clerical or other employees required by any committee.

The Committee on Committees shall meet on call of the Speaker or on call of a majority of the members of the Committee on Committees.

Rule 46. Committee Reports. No bill or resolution shall be considered by the House except on report of committee. A standing committee may report a bill or resolution in the following manner:

“With the expression of opinion that the same should pass,” or

“With the expression of opinion that the same should pass, with the committee amendment attached thereto,” or

“With the expression of opinion that the same should pass, with the committee substitute attached thereto,” or

“With the expression of opinion that the same should not pass.”

Rule 47. Standing and Special Committee Reports. It shall require a majority of the committee membership to report a bill or resolution. The chair shall keep a record of the vote of each member on the disposition of each bill, and shall report the total vote on each side to the House. The chair may sign reports on behalf of a majority of the committee members. The chair’s signature shall attest to the action of a majority, but shall not be construed as the chair’s personal approval or disapproval of the bill.

A committee report may be accompanied by a minority report, signed by those members who have dissented from the committee’s report, and it shall be in order to move the adoption of the minority report as a substitute for the committee’s report when the committee offers its report. It shall require a majority of the members elected to adopt the minority report. The committee’s report shall always be read before the minority report is read. Where both majority and minority reports are submitted, a motion to adopt the majority report shall first be considered, and a motion to adopt a minority report shall not be in order unless a motion to adopt the majority report fails.

Rule 48. Discharge Petition. Whenever a committee fails or refuses to report within a reasonable time a bill submitted to it, a member may sponsor and file with the Clerk a written request, signed by twenty-five or more members, to call the same up for consideration on the next succeeding legislative day after the filing of the request. The effect of this petition shall be to bring before the House the question of whether the committee to which the bill has been assigned has held the bill for an unreasonable time. Upon the motion of the member sponsoring the request, and if a majority of the members elected to the House concur that the bill has been held an unreasonable time, the bill shall be considered as though it had been regularly reported, and sent to the Rules Committee.

Rule 49. Procedure in Committee. The rules of procedure in the House shall be observed in committee insofar as the same are applicable. Any bill or resolution referred to a committee by the Committee on Committees shall be considered eligible for consideration and action thereon by the committee at the discretion of the committee chair.

Rule 50. Form of Bills. All bills introduced shall be printed on the computerized bill preparation system of the Legislative Research Commission, and none otherwise prepared shall be accepted for introduction. Bills shall be offered as one original and three distinctly legible copies. Identical bills for introduction in the other chamber may be exact reproductions of original bill provided one copy is authenticated by the Director of the Legislative Research Commission as the original to be introduced in the other chamber. The original shall be the official bill, and shall be retained by the Clerk for the use of the House until engrossed and sent to the Senate. A replacement original of a bill, generated pursuant to these Rules, shall thereafter be considered the original and official bill. One copy shall be used by committees; one copy shall be retained for the use of legislative staff; and one copy shall be provided to the Legislative Research Commission. Each copy shall be backed with a protective cover, as provided for this purpose by the Legislative Research Commission. The title of the bill, or a portion thereof, and the signature of the member introducing the bill shall be placed on each cover.

In all bills, as introduced and as printed, any new matter contained therein shall be underscored; and when an amendment proposes the elimination of matter in an existing law, that elimination shall be indicated on the bill by placing the material proposed to be eliminated in brackets, and by striking through the words to be eliminated with a single line so as not to render those words illegible. In any bill seeking to repeal existing sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, the sections sought to be repealed shall be identified by way of inclusion of the headnotes applied to each section as it appears in the Kentucky Revised Statutes. All bills recommending or reauthorizing a study by an interim committee, task force, or special committee of the Legislative Research Commission shall include the following language: “Provisions of this statute to the contrary notwithstanding, the Legislative Research Commission shall have the authority to alternatively assign the issues identified herein to an interim joint committee or subcommittee thereof, and to designate a study completion date.” The Legislative Research Commission staff shall see that all bills introduced have been prepared through the computerized bill preparation system of the Legislative Research Commission.

Rule 51. Introduction of Bills. A member may introduce bills and resolutions by filing them with the House Clerk on the floor or in the Clerk’s office at any time the office is open. The member filing the bill or resolution shall be the primary sponsor of the bill or resolution, and with the sponsor’s permission, one member may sign the bill as primary co-sponsor. Other members may co-sponsor the bill or resolution only with the sponsor’s permission and by either filing the proper papers with the Clerk or by indicating their desire to co-sponsor the bill or resolution in the Legislative Research Commission Remote Voting System or, upon motion by the primary sponsor of a simple resolution to allow co-sponsorship by a roll call vote made immediately following adoption of the resolution, by indicating their desire to co-sponsor the resolution by an affirmative vote. Bills and resolutions must be signed by the sponsors and co-sponsors with the member's legislative district numbers beside their signature, except in the case of co-sponsorship by the Legislative Research Commission Remote Voting System or roll call vote as permitted by this rule. A co-sponsor may withdraw co-sponsorship of the bill or resolution with or without the sponsor's permission by filing the proper papers with the Clerk. Bills and resolutions filed after the House has concluded the Introduction and Reading of New Bills, in Rule 4, Order of Business, shall be considered as having been introduced the next succeeding legislative day. The House Clerk shall number bills in the order received and transmit a copy immediately after introduction on the House floor to the Committee on Committees for reference to committee.

In a regular session in an even-numbered year, no bill or resolution having the force of law shall be introduced after the thirty-eighth legislative day of the session. In a regular session in an odd-numbered year, no bill or resolution having the force of law shall be introduced after the fourteenth legislative day of the session.

The last two legislative days preceding the veto recess shall be reserved by the House exclusively for the business of concurring in amended House bills, receding from House amendments, considering conference and free conference committee reports, and final passage and enrollment of legislation. No House bills or House resolutions having the force of law, other than those referred to in the previous sentence, shall be placed upon their passage later than the fifty-third legislative day in even-year regular sessions, nor later than the twenty-fifth legislative day in odd-year regular sessions; and on the fifty-fourth legislative day in an even-year regular session and on the twenty-sixth legislative day in an odd-year regular session, all bills other than those referred to in the previous sentence that remain in the Orders of the Day shall be returned to the Rules Committee.

The House shall not consider any bills or resolutions having the force of law for concurrence, recession, adoption of conference or free conference committee reports, or final passage if they are received after 5 p.m. on the final concurrence day of a regular session. Any legislative day falling after the veto recess shall be reserved by the House exclusively for the purposes of considering gubernatorial veto messages.

Rule 52. Statutory Fiscal Impact Statements. The staff of the Legislative Research Commission shall analyze and prepare a fiscal statement for any bill which, if enacted, would fiscally affect local governments in a significant manner through the imposition of a local mandate; constitute a mandated health benefit; change the financial liability of any public retirement system administered by an agency of state government; or fiscally affect state or local corrections services in a significant manner, including any bill which would modify or create a criminal penalty or otherwise affect the population of a correctional system or facility. No measure for which the preparation of a fiscal statement has been requested or is required pursuant to this rule shall be placed in the Orders of the Day until the fiscal statement is attached, unless the requirement is waived by a vote of a majority of the members elected to the House.

Rule 52A. Member Requested Fiscal Notes. A sponsor of a bill which, if enacted, would affect the revenues or expenditures of the Commonwealth generally, may at any time by request cause the staff of the Legislative Research Commission to analyze and prepare a fiscal note for the measure describing such impacts on revenues or expenditures. The fiscal note, if requested, shall be delivered to the sponsor.

The chair or a majority of the committee to which a bill has been referred may require that a fiscal note be attached to the bill prior to final committee action.

Members may require, by majority vote, that a fiscal note be prepared for any bill on the Orders of the Day. In that instance, the fiscal note shall be attached to the bill prior to final consideration on the floor of the House.

Rule 53. Member Requested Fiscal Notes and Statutory Fiscal Impact Statements for Amendments.

Any member proposing an amendment from the floor for a measure to which a fiscal note or fiscal statement has been attached shall cause an amended fiscal note or fiscal statement, as appropriate, to be prepared and attached to the amendment.

Rule 54. Reference of Bills. The Committee on Committees may refer a bill to the proper standing committee after the date of introduction. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and has been returned to the House for concurrence in the amendment, it shall be referred to the Rules Committee. In these instances, the Clerk shall distribute copies of the bill and its proposed amendment to each member of the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee may post these bills to the Orders of the Day for consideration of the amendment, and final passage, giving precedence to these bills over all other matters posted. When bills with amendments for concurrence are reached in the Orders of the Day, the Speaker shall first put the question of concurrence in the amendment, whereupon if that is favorable, the bill shall be put immediately upon its final passage. Bills originating in and passed by the Senate when reported to the House shall be referred to the Committee on Committees and shall take the same course as other bills.

Rule 55. Printing of Bills. Upon receipt of a bill, the Legislative Research Commission shall examine the form of the bill to ensure that it is free from errors of form or typography and has been assigned the proper KRS section or chapter numbers. If a formal change is necessary the Commission shall request the sponsor of the bill to sign a form approving the specified changes. If a bill is found to be correct, or corrections have been approved, the Commission shall authorize its printing.

The Legislative Research Commission shall have printed for the use of the members a sufficient number of copies of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law introduced in the House and of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law acted on by the Senate and reported to the House. Bills shall be printed in the order in which they are introduced and shall be distributed to members immediately upon receipt from the printer. For the purposes of this rule, printing and distribution of bills and resolutions shall be considered satisfied when any bill or resolution is distributed electronically to each member's electronic bill book, provided that any member may at any time request the additional printing of a paper copy of any bill or resolution introduced in or reported to the House.

Rule 56. Readings of Bills. If a bill is reported with the expression of opinion that it should not pass, a vote may then be taken on whether it shall be read at length and be placed on the Calendar, if a majority of the members elected to the House shall concur therein.

When reported favorably by the committee, the bill shall then be given its first reading at length and shall be placed by the Clerk upon the Calendar, and shall then be entitled to its second reading the next succeeding legislative day.

Every bill shall be read at length on three different legislative days; but the second and third readings may be dispensed with by a majority of all the members elected to the House.

Rule 57. Calendar; Consent Calendar.

(1) In order to reduce the time required for final passage of bills posted in the Orders of the Day, a consent procedure for the consideration of noncontroversial bills shall be established and designated as follows:

(a) The Clerk shall keep a Regular Calendar and a Consent Calendar for each legislative day showing the bills receiving their second reading.

(b) The Clerk shall also keep a Regular Orders and a Consent Orders showing bills posted for final passage by the Rules Committee.

(2) Bills reported by a Standing Committee with a regular “should pass” or “should pass with committee amendment/substitute attached” recommendation shall be shown in the Regular Calendar on the day on which they are entitled to a second reading.

(3) The Rules Committee may recommend that any House or Senate Bill having been favorably reported by a Standing Committee be placed in the Consent Calendar, provided the bill receives a recommendation from the Rules Committee by a unanimous vote of the members present. Any House or Senate Bill recommended for consent shall be placed in the Consent Calendar and shall continue to be shown in that Calendar until taken therefrom by the Rules Committee and posted in the Consent Orders. Bills receiving a second reading should be so designated to distinguish them from bills which have already received their second reading.

(4) A certificate shall be attached to each bill recommended for the Consent Calendar showing the unanimous recommendation of the members of the Rules Committee present, signed by the Chair.

(5) After a sufficient number of bills have accumulated in the Consent Calendar, the Rules Committee may post any or all of those bills to the Consent Orders for a day certain. On that day, the Consent Orders shall be called before the Regular Orders.

(6) Upon the call of the Consent Orders each bill in those Orders shall be given a third reading by title only. The Speaker shall then allow a reasonable time for questions from the floor and any explanation necessary by the sponsor or committee chair. Consent Order bills may not be amended from the floor.

(7) The Clerk shall attach a roll call to each bill in the Consent Calendar and any member may at any time prior to passage of the Consent Orders record with the Clerk a “nay” or “pass” vote on any bill within the Consent Calendar or Consent Orders.

(8) Upon the call for the question on the Consent Orders, the Speaker shall instruct the Clerk to announce the “nay” and “pass” votes previously filed on each bill in the Consent Orders. All other members present in the chamber on the day and at the time the Consent Orders are called shall be considered as having voted “aye” and the roll call attached to each bill shall so reflect as the final vote.

Rule 58. Orders of the Day. When a bill has had its second reading it shall be referred to the Rules Committee for consideration of whether it shall be placed in the Orders of the Day, or be recommitted, and when next reached in the House it shall be ready for recommitment, or to be read a third time and placed upon its passage, and the Speaker shall so announce to the House.

A bill may be recommitted or amended in accordance with these rules at any time before its passage. Bills shall be placed in the Orders of the Day in the order in which they have been given their first reading, and shall be taken therefrom in accordance with Rule 41. When a House bill is in the Orders of the Day, it shall be in order on motion of the author to substitute for it an identical Senate bill which is in the Calendar of the House.

No bill shall be taken from the Orders of the Day unless it shall have been printed and previously distributed to members, which for the purposes of this rule shall include electronic distribution to each member's electronic bill book. No bill, amendment, or committee substitute relating to congressional or legislative redistricting shall be taken from the Orders of the Day unless it shall have been verified by Legislative Research Commission staff using the Commission's redistricting software, for plan integrity and geographic integrity. The verification shall be evidenced by the Legislative Record summary notation "PLAN INTEGRITY VERIFIED" and the "Geographic Integrity Verified" notation on amendments.

Rule 59. Final Passage. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and the House has concurred in the amendment, or a Senate bill has been amended in the House, but the Senate refuses to concur, and the House recedes from its amendment, the bill shall immediately be placed upon its passage.

Rule 60. Amendments to Bills. All amendments offered shall be on sheets with a proper heading printed in black, furnished by the Commission staff, and shall bear the signature and district number of the members offering the same. An amendment prepared for one member but signed by another shall be considered the amendment of the member signing the amendment. All amendments shall give the proper page and line of the printed bill. An original and one copy of each amendment shall be introduced. No amendment shall be in order that is not germane to the matter under consideration and unless it shall have been printed and previously distributed by the Clerk to members at least one legislative day prior to consideration of the bill or resolution; and the Speaker, when the question is raised, shall rule as to the admissibility of the proposed amendment, subject to appeal to the House.

No amendment to a bill under consideration shall be in order if it contains the substantial text of the language of any other bill introduced during the session which has not passed the House. The commission staff shall cause those amendments to be identified when the bill proposed to be amended thereby is posted on the Orders of the Day. When a question is raised as to the identity of the proposed amendment containing the substantial text of any other bill introduced during the session, the Speaker shall rule thereon, subject to appeal to the House.

A committee substitute, upon its adoption, shall be considered as the original bill for purposes relating to the permissible degree of further amendment of the bill.

A proposal to amend the title of a bill shall be by separate title amendment. The question of adoption of an offered title amendment for a bill shall be presented to the body immediately after adoption of the bill.

A proposal to amend the Constitution of Kentucky shall be introduced as a bill, and no such proposal shall be in order if it is offered as an amendment to any bill.

If a proposed floor amendment to a branch budget bill will result, if adopted, in a loss of revenues or an increase in expenditures for a budget unit, the amendment shall specify by budget unit the amount and source of funds that will offset the loss of revenues or specify the budget unit or other source of funds that will support the increased expenditures. If a budget unit or other source of funds is specified, the amendment shall include all necessary language to effect the changes. It shall be out of order for a floor amendment to a branch budget bill to: (a) specify in general language that funds to support the change shall come from broadly defined sources, such as the budget of a particular cabinet, branch of government, or multiple unrelated budget units, unless the effect on each of these is specifically defined by program and amount; (b) require or permit any other branch or unit of government to determine which specific programs would be affected; or (c) reduce the Budget Reserve Trust Fund.

Rule 61. Engrossment of Bills. Every House bill and joint resolution, together with the amendments thereto, which has been passed by the House and not subject to further amendment or motion, shall be engrossed by the Clerk. The Clerk shall endorse thereon the day of passage or adoption. The bill shall be delivered to the Senate in open session by the Clerk or someone designated by the Clerk, and Senate concurrence asked therein. A like procedure shall be observed toward Senate bills.

When engrossing a bill, the Clerk may incorporate amendments by means of typing or by generating a replacement original of the bill through computerized process.

Rule 62. Enrollment of Bills. All House bills and resolutions which have passed both the Senate and the House shall be delivered by the Clerk to the Enrolling Clerk, taking a receipt therefor, in the order in which passed. The Clerk shall keep the number and title of all bills and joint and concurrent resolutions carrying the force and effect of law, passed by the House of Representatives and the Senate in a suitable record book attesting the fact and date of passage.

If a bill which originates in the House is amended by the Senate and the House concurs in the amendments proposed and adopted by the Senate, the Clerk shall engross those amendments in the original copy of the bill by typing or may generate a replacement original copy of the House bill through computerized process, before delivering the bill to the Enrolling Clerk of the House.

In cases of extreme emergency and during the last three days prior to sine die adjournment, where no correct printed copy can be produced, the Enrolling Clerk may enroll the bill or resolution by typing the same.

The original bill or resolution or replacement therefor, if applicable, and an enrolled copy shall be delivered to the Committee on Enrollment. The Enrolling Clerk shall certify that each is in the exact form as finally passed prior to their delivery. The Committee on Enrollment and the Enrolling Clerk shall jointly compare the original bill with the enrolled copy, and if the enrollment is ascertained to be correctly done, the Committee shall report the same to the House. If any bill or resolution is found not correctly enrolled, it shall be returned to the Enrolling Clerk to be properly enrolled and delivered to the Committee on Enrollment as is first provided herein.

Rule 63. Signing of Bills. The Enrolling Clerk of the House shall deliver the enrolled copies of House bills and resolutions signed by the Speaker to the Chair of the Enrollment Committee of the Senate for presentation to the President of the Senate for the President's signature. When signed by the President of the Senate, the enrolled bill or resolution shall be returned by the Enrolling Clerk to the Clerk of the House who shall present the enrolled bill or resolution to the Governor for the Governor's approval and take a receipt for same.

Rule 64. Resolutions. Resolutions having the force and effect of law shall be treated and considered as bills in all respects under these rules. A simple resolution expressing the will of the House shall upon its introduction be automatically referred to the Committee on Committees, which may refer it to the floor if it is honorary, benevolent, and does not direct further action; otherwise, it shall be referred to a standing committee. Simple resolutions referred to a standing committee may be considered for adoption only after receiving a recommendation from a standing committee and being posted for passage by the Rules Committee. A resolution shall not be accepted for introduction if offered in lieu of a legislative citation. No resolution shall be considered unless it shall have been distributed to all members. All resolutions recommending or reauthorizing a study by an interim committee, task force, or special committee of the Legislative Research Commission shall include the following language: "Provisions of this resolution to the contrary notwithstanding, the Legislative Research Commission shall have the authority to alternatively assign the issues identified herein to an interim joint committee or subcommittee thereof, and to designate a study completion date." All resolutions recommending or reauthorizing a study, or which recommend or reauthorize creation of a task force or special committee of the Legislative Research Commission shall be concurrent or joint resolutions.

Rule 65. Legislative Citations. For the purpose of extending the commendations, condolences or congratulations of the General Assembly to a particular person, or to recognize a particular event or occasion, there may be issued a "Legislative Citation." Citations may not be used for procedural matters, matters of a controversial or partisan political nature, nor in place of resolutions memorializing the U.S. Congress, but only when appropriate to express the feeling of the House or of the General Assembly with reference to a person or event.

Staff of the Legislative Research Commission shall prepare proposed legislative citations for adoption by the House and shall assign those citations a number. The sponsor shall receive the original citation and a copy shall also be transmitted to the Clerk of the House prior to adoption. Each citation shall bear the signature of the sponsor and the name of the person or event cited, and upon adoption shall be spread at length upon the Journal. Citations shall be read by title and sponsor only and considered in the order of business "Motions, Petitions, Communications and Announcements."

VOTING

Rule 66. Roll Call. Any member, with a second, may require a roll call on any matter pending before the House. The names of members shall be arranged alphabetically when taking a yea and nay vote.

Any time these rules require a roll-call vote, or a yea and a nay vote of the members, that vote may be taken by either a voice roll call or the electrical voting system, as ordered by the Speaker.

The Speaker, before each roll-call vote is taken, shall instruct the Clerk to sound the warning chimes installed in that part of the Capitol assigned to the use of the House.

During a roll call any one member, with a second, may request and be afforded a delay of two minutes prior to the closing of the roll. Except when remote voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 67A or alternative voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 68A, only one such motion shall be observed during any one roll call.

Rule 67. Electrical Voting System. When the House is ready to vote upon any question requiring a roll call, and the vote is to be taken by the electrical roll call system, the Speaker shall announce:

“The question is on the passage of (designating the matter to be voted upon). All in favor of the question shall vote ‘yea,’ and all opposed shall vote ‘nay.’ The House roll is now open for voting.”

The Speaker shall recognize any member who rises for the purpose of explaining a vote. No member shall be allowed to speak more than two minutes to explain a vote, and no more than one minute if the member has already spoken on the measure, and shall not speak at all if the question is not a debatable question. The recognition of a member for the purpose of explaining a vote and the time limit allotted by this rule for explanation are subject to, and may be further limited by, a motion to set limits on debate.

When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote and to explain their vote, the Speaker shall announce: “Have all voted?” “Does anyone desire to change their vote?” and, after sufficient pause, shall lock the roll call system and instruct the Clerk to record the vote. Except when alternative voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 68A, it shall be the responsibility of each member to determine the accuracy of the member’s individual vote as registered opposite the member’s name on the electrical roll call board and advise the Speaker of any desired change before the roll call system is locked. If alternative voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 68A, either the member or the designee of the member’s caucus that is permitted to cast votes on behalf of the member may determine the accuracy of the member’s individual vote and advise the Speaker of any desired change before the roll call system is locked. In the case of alternative voting, the Speaker shall recognize each caucus designee that is permitted to cast votes on behalf of any member for an affirmation that all member votes are registered correctly before the roll call system is locked.

The Clerk shall immediately start the recording equipment, and when completely recorded, shall present the result to the Speaker who shall announce same to the House. The Clerk shall enter upon the Journal the result in the manner provided by the rules of the House.

At the same time the vote is recorded by the electric recording equipment an original and five duplicate roll call sheets shall be made showing the vote, two of which duplicates shall be for use of the press, and one copy shall be furnished to the Legislative Research Commission.

With respect to any roll call vote on a question that is not on the passage of a bill, adoption of an amendment or committee substitute, concurrence or recession from a Senate amendment, adoption of a conference committee or free conference committee report, or override of a gubernatorial veto, the electrical voting system shall indicate that the question subject of the roll call vote is procedural in nature, and the roll call vote shall be described as a procedural vote on the original roll call sheet and on all duplicates.

Rule 67A. Remote Voting Permitted. At any time, the Speaker, or other presiding officer as specified in House Rule 26, may authorize remote voting procedures for the members on any matter pending before the House. At any time, a committee chair may authorize remote voting procedures for the members of the committee on any matter pending before the committee.

If remote voting is authorized in the House, any member physically present in their Capitol Annex office may cast a vote on any matter pending before the House by utilizing the Legislative Research Commission Remote Voting System to indicate the member's yea or nay vote on the matter. Any votes cast by members in person in a member's Capitol Annex office through the Legislative Research Commission Remote Voting System shall be reflected on the electrical voting system.

Rule 67B. Vote Modification. Following the close of any vote, a member may only enter a new vote or modify a previously cast vote by motion, and only if the member's vote will not change the outcome of the original vote on the measure. If the member's motion is granted, the member shall file with the Clerk the vote the member wishes the Clerk to enter or modify on a form provided by the Clerk, and the Clerk shall thereafter enter upon the Journal the member's new or modified vote; provided that no vote cast or modified by motion under this rule shall amend an original roll call sheet.

Rule 68. Voting for Others Prohibited. Except when alternative voting is authorized pursuant to House Rule 68A, no member shall vote for another member, nor shall any person not a member cast a vote for a member. In addition to any penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who shall vote or attempt to vote for another member who is not authorized to vote for the member by House Rule 68A may be punished in a manner as the House may determine. If a person not a member shall vote or attempt to vote for any member, that person shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session and may be further punished in any manner as the House may deem proper, in addition to the punishment as may be prescribed by law.

Rule 68A. Alternative Voting for Others Permitted. If any member is diagnosed with COVID-19 or is under a quarantine order related to COVID-19, the Speaker, or other presiding officer as specified in House Rule 26, may authorize alternative voting procedures for the member.

If alternative voting is authorized for a member, and if the member is physically present in their automobile on the Capitol Campus, the member may cast a vote on any matter pending before the House by advising the Speaker, the Clerk, or a designee of the member's caucus who will be physically present during a session of the House of the member's yea or nay vote on the matter.

Prior to the Speaker, the Clerk, or the caucus designee accepting and casting a vote for another member, the Speaker, the Clerk, or the caucus designee shall verify the member's identity and desired vote on a specific measure under consideration through appropriate means, including but not limited to a video call in which the member's face can be seen and their desired vote on a specific measure can be clearly communicated.

At the appropriate time, the Speaker shall announce the specific measure to be considered and announce in open session any votes received by him or her directly, as well as any votes received by the Clerk. The Speaker shall then recognize the caucus designees who shall announce in open session any votes received by them on behalf of any other members. All of the announced votes, as well as any votes cast by members in person, shall be reflected on the electrical voting system.

The Clerk shall enter upon the Journal the result in the manner provided by the rules of the House.

Rule 69. Pairing. All pairs announced in the House shall be entered on the Journal.

Rule 70. Adjournment Extended During Roll Call. When the roll is being called in taking a ye and nay vote, and the hour of an adjournment arrives, the same shall stand extended until after the ye and nay vote has been completed and the result announced.

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR

Rule 71. Persons Entitled to the Floor. No person shall be permitted upon the floor of the House or within the member's offices on the third and fourth floor of the Capitol Annex when the House is in session and upon the floor of the House one hour before and after the House is in session except the present members of the General Assembly, former members of the General Assembly, and all officers and employees of the General Assembly. Bona fide news media correspondents shall be admitted to the gallery when recommended by the Committee on Committees and shall be governed by the rules of the House and assigned by the Committee on Committees to a media section specifically set aside for them.

Members may submit the names of guests to their caucus chair. The Majority Caucus Chair and the Minority Caucus Chair shall read the names of their respective caucus members' guests to the House. Members shall not introduce guests from the floor.

Rule 72. Restriction of lobbying and access to the House Chambers and office areas. No person shall engage in lobbying for or against any measure while the House is in session, or in recess, in any of the corridors or passages or in any of the rooms in that part of the Capitol or Capitol Annex assigned to the use of the House, and no registered lobbyist shall enter that part of the Capitol or the member's offices on the third and fourth floor of the Capitol Annex while the House is in session. This rule shall not be construed to prohibit the use of the corridors or passages in going to and from the House gallery by any person.

A sign, poster, or any other object, the purpose of which can be reasonably construed to indicate support or opposition to any measure before the House, and which is large enough to be generally visible from the House floor, shall not be permitted in the gallery.

Only authorized persons shall be allowed access to the office areas assigned for use of the members and staff of the House. For the purposes of this paragraph, "authorized person" means a member of the General Assembly, an employee of the General Assembly or Legislative Research Commission, or a person having obtained specific access authorization from a member or employee. For the purposes of this paragraph, "office areas" means the fourth floor of the Capitol, that part of the third floor of the Capitol assigned to the use of the House, and the third and fourth floors of the Capitol Annex.

Rule 73. Restrictions. For purposes of this rule, “material” shall mean any letter, report, writing, article, booklet, pamphlet, image, photograph, object, or any other item, including any physical object or electronic transmission containing audio, video, or electronic communication, which is requested to be placed upon either the desk of a member on the House floor or in a member’s office in the Annex. This material shall not be distributed unless the party interested in the distribution of the material is clearly and physically identified on the material to be distributed. All this material shall conform to accepted public taste, shall contain no matter appealing to prurient interest or without redeeming social value, and shall uphold the dignity of the legislative process. Material originating from the general public shall be delivered to the administrative offices of the Legislative Research Commission or the Clerk of the House and shall upon direction of the Clerk, after inspection, be placed on the members’ desk in the Capitol Annex provided the following conditions are met:

- (1) Unless 100 copies are provided, all material should be individually addressed to each member expected to receive a copy;
- (2) If several pages or items are to be provided to each member, they should be securely fastened or placed together in an envelope; and

- (3) Sufficient copies of all material should be provided; staff shall not make additional copies of material.

Material that may be distributed by the Clerk in the House Chamber is restricted to official communications relating to pending legislation or the operation of the House, material sent by a member clearly identified on the face of the material or its attachments to any other member, or other material as designated by the Speaker's Office. The Sergeant-at-Arms shall be charged with the duty of ensuring that no individual other than employees of the House under the direction of the Clerk or House members shall cause materials of any nature to be distributed in the House Chamber. Questions as to the propriety of materials shall be referred to the Committee on Committees for resolution. Any material distributed by unauthorized individuals shall be collected from the members' desks and treated as litter, and any material submitted but not distributed that is unclaimed after one week shall be discarded. Material which is received via e-mail or via any digital storage device or media with a request for distribution electronically by LRC staff shall be refused or returned to the sender. Nothing in this rule restricts the right of any person to communicate directly with any member, either electronically or through the United States mail.

RULES

Rule 74. Mason's Manual. In the absence of a specific rule of the House, the most recent edition of Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure, as adopted by the National Conference of State Legislatures, shall govern the proceedings, except that in all cases where general parliamentary law provides for a rule of two-thirds, it shall mean in this House a majority of all members elected thereto.

Rule 75. Change of Rules. The rules of the House, after their adoption shall not be altered, changed, amended, suspended or interrupted, unless the same be done by a majority of the members elected to the House. No rule shall be suspended for the purpose of any action affecting the passage of a bill or resolution carrying the force of law unless the rule is suspended by a majority of the members elected to the House. Whenever a rule is suspended, no measure shall be considered under suspension except the measure or measures in whose favor the suspension was invoked, and only for that day.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS FOR LEGISLATIVE PROCEDURE

Section 34. Officers of Houses of General Assembly. The House of Representatives shall choose its Speaker and other officers, and the Senate shall have power to choose its officers biennially.

Section 36. Time and place of meetings of General Assembly. (1) The General Assembly, in odd-numbered years, shall meet in regular session for a period not to exceed a total of thirty (30) legislative days divided as follows: The General Assembly shall convene for the first part of the session on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January in odd-numbered years for the purposes of electing legislative leaders, adopting rules of procedure, organizing committees, and introducing and considering legislation. The General Assembly shall then adjourn. The General Assembly shall convene for the second part of the session on the first Tuesday in February of that year. Any legislation introduced but not enacted in the first part of the session shall be carried over into the second part of the session. In any part of the session in an odd-numbered year, no bill raising revenue or appropriating funds shall become a law unless it shall be agreed to by three-fifths of all the members elected to each House.

(2) The General Assembly shall then adjourn until the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January of the following even-numbered years, at which time the General Assembly shall convene in regular session.

(3) All sessions shall be held at the seat of government, except in case of war, insurrection or pestilence, when it may, by proclamation of the Governor, assemble, for the time being, elsewhere.

Section 37. Majority constitutes quorum; Powers of less than a quorum. Not less than a majority of the members of each House of the General Assembly shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall be authorized by law to compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by law.

Section 38. Each House to judge qualifications, elections, and returns of its members; Contests. Each House of the General Assembly shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its members, but a contested election shall be determined in such manner as shall be directed by law.

Section 39. Powers of each House as to rules and conduct of members; Contempt; Bribery. Each House of the General Assembly may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish a member for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member, but not a second time for the same cause, and may punish for contempt any person who refuses to attend as a witness, or to bring any paper proper to be used as evidence before the General Assembly, or either House thereof, or a Committee of either, or to testify concerning any matter which may be a proper subject of inquiry by the General Assembly, or offers or gives a bribe to a member of the General Assembly, or attempts by other corrupt means or device to control or influence a member to cast his vote or withhold the same. The punishment and mode of proceeding for contempt in such cases shall be prescribed by law, but the term of imprisonment in any such case shall not extend beyond the session of the General Assembly.

Section 40. Journals; When vote to be entered. Each House of the General Assembly shall keep and publish daily a journal of its proceedings; and the yeas and nays of the members on any question shall, at the desire of any two of the members elected, be entered on the journal.

Section 41. Adjournment during session. Neither House, during the session of the General Assembly, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which it may be sitting.

Section 42. Compensation of members — Length of sessions — Legislative day. The members of the General Assembly shall severally receive from the State Treasury compensation for their services:

Provided, No change shall take effect during the session at which it is made; nor shall a session occurring in odd-numbered years extend beyond March 30; nor shall a session of the General Assembly occurring in even-numbered years continue beyond sixty legislative days, nor shall it extend beyond April 15; these limitations as to length of sessions shall not apply to the Senate when sitting as a court of impeachment. A legislative day shall be construed to mean a calendar day, exclusive of Sundays, legal holidays, or any day on which neither House meets.

Section 43. Privileges from arrest and from questioning as to speech or debate. The members of the General Assembly shall, in all cases except treason, felony, breach or surety of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance on the sessions of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either House they shall not be questioned in any other place.

Section 46. Bills must be reported by committee, printed, and read; How bill called from committee; Votes required for passage. No bill shall be considered for final passage unless the same has been reported by a committee and printed for the use of the members. Every bill shall be read at length on three different days in each House, but the second and third readings may be dispensed with by a majority of all the members elected to the House in which the bill is pending. But whenever a committee refuses or fails to report a bill submitted to it in a reasonable time, the same may be called up by any member, and be considered in the same manner it would have been considered if it had been reported. No bill shall become a law unless, on its final passage, it receives the votes of at least two-fifths of the members elected to each House, and a majority of the members voting, the vote to be taken by yeas and nays and entered in the journal: Provided, Any act or resolution for the appropriation of money or the creation of debt shall, on its final passage, receive the votes of a majority of all the members elected to each House.

Section 47. Bills to raise revenue must originate in House of Representatives. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives, but the Senate may propose amendments thereto: Provided, No new matter shall be introduced, under color of amendment, which does not relate to raising revenue.

Section 51. Law may not relate to more than one subject, to be expressed in title; Amendments must be at length. No law enacted by the General Assembly shall relate to more than one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title, and no law shall be revised, amended, or the provisions thereof extended or conferred by reference to its title only, but so much thereof as is revised, amended, extended or conferred, shall be reenacted and published at length.

Section 55. When laws to take effect; Emergency legislation. No act, except general appropriation bills, shall become a law until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was passed, except in cases of emergency, when, by the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to each House of the General Assembly, by a yea and nay vote entered upon their journals, an act may become a law when approved by the Governor; but the reasons for the emergency that justifies this action must be set out at length in the journal of each House.

Section 56. Signing of bills; Enrollment; Presentation to Governor. No bill shall become a law until the same shall have been signed by the presiding officer of each of the two Houses in open session; and before such officer shall have affixed his signature to any bill, he shall suspend all other business, declare that such bill will now be read, and that he will sign the same to the end that it may become a law. The bill shall then be read at length and compared; and, if correctly enrolled, he shall, in the presence of the House in open session, and before any other business is entertained, affix his signature, which fact shall be noted in the journal, and the bill immediately sent to the other House. When it reaches the other House, the presiding officer thereof shall immediately suspend all other business, announce the reception of the bill, and the same proceeding shall thereupon be observed in every respect as in the House in which it was first signed. And thereupon the Clerk of the latter House shall immediately present the same to the Governor for his signature and approval.

Section 57. Member having personal interest to make disclosure and not vote. A member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the General Assembly, shall disclose the fact to the House of which he is a member, and shall not vote thereon upon pain of expulsion.

Section 62. Style of laws. The style of the laws of this Commonwealth shall be as follows: "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky."

Section 66. Power of impeachment vested in House. The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment.

Section 67. Trial of impeachments by Senate. All impeachments shall be tried by the Senate. When sitting for that purpose, the Senators shall be upon oath or affirmation. No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the Senators present.

Section 68. Civil officers liable to impeachment; Judgment; Criminal liability. The Governor and all civil officers shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanors in office; but judgment in such cases shall not extend further than removal from office, and disqualification, to hold any office of honor, trust or profit under this Commonwealth; but the party convicted shall, nevertheless, be subject and liable to indictment, trial and punishment by law.

Section 80. Governor may call extraordinary session of General Assembly; Adjourn General Assembly. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the General Assembly at the seat of government, or at a different place, if that should have become dangerous from an enemy or from contagious diseases. In case of disagreement between the two Houses with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper, not exceeding four months. When he shall convene the General Assembly it shall be by proclamation, stating the subjects to be considered, and no others shall be considered.

Section 85. President of Senate — Election — Powers. A President of the Senate shall be elected by each Senate as soon after its organization as possible and as often as there is a vacancy in the office of President, another President of the Senate shall be elected by the Senate, if in session. And if, during the vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant Governor shall be impeached and removed from office, refuse to qualify, resign, or die, the President of the Senate shall in like manner administer the government.

Section 86. Compensation of President of the Senate. The President of the Senate shall receive for his services the same compensation which shall, for the same period, be allowed to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and during the time he administers the government as Governor, he shall receive the same compensation which the Governor would have received had he been employed in the duties of his office.

Section 87. Who to act as Governor in absence of Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate. If the Lieutenant Governor shall be called upon to administer the government in place of the Governor, and shall, while in such administration, resign, or die during the recess of the General Assembly, if there be no President of the Senate, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, for the time being, to convene the Senate for the purpose of choosing a President; and until a President is chosen, the Attorney General shall administer the government. If there be no Attorney General to perform the duties devolved upon him by this section, then the Auditor, for the time being, shall convene the Senate for the purpose of choosing a President, and shall administer the government until a President is chosen.

Section 88. Signature of bills by Governor; veto; Passage over veto; Partial veto. Every bill which shall have passed the two Houses shall be presented to the Governor. If he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the House in which it originated, which shall enter the objections in full upon its journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, a majority of all the members elected to that House shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be considered, and if approved by a majority of all the members elected to that House, it shall be a law; but in such case the votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against the bill shall be entered upon the journal of each House respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, it shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the General Assembly, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall be a law, unless disapproved by him within ten days after the adjournment, in which case his veto message shall be spread upon the register kept by the Secretary of State. The Governor shall have the power to disapprove any part or parts of appropriation bills embracing distinct items, and the part or parts disapproved shall not become a law unless reconsidered and passed, as in case of a bill.

Section 89. Concurrent orders and resolutions on same footing as bill. Every order, resolution or vote, in which the concurrence of both Houses may be necessary, except on a question of adjournment, or as otherwise provided in this Constitution, shall be presented to the Governor, and, before it shall take effect, be approved by him; or, being disapproved, shall be repassed by a majority of the members elected to both Houses, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in case of a bill.

Section 90. Contest of election for Governor or Lieutenant Governor. Contested elections for Governor and Lieutenant Governor shall be determined by both Houses of the General Assembly, according to such regulations as may be established by law.

Section 231. Suits against the Commonwealth. The General Assembly may, by law, direct in what manner and in what courts suits may be brought against the Commonwealth.

Section 256. Amendments to Constitution — How proposed and voted upon. Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in either House of the General Assembly at a regular session, and if such amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by three-fifths of all the members elected to each House, such proposed amendment or amendments, with the yeas and nays of the members of each House taken thereon, shall be entered in full in their respective journals. Then such proposed amendment or amendments shall be submitted to the voters of the State for their ratification or rejection at the next general election for members of the House of Representatives, the vote to be taken thereon in such manner as the General Assembly may provide, and to be certified by the officers of election to the Secretary of State in such manner as shall be provided by law, which vote shall be compared and certified by the same board authorized by law to compare the polls and give certificates of election to officers for the State at large. If it shall appear that a majority of the votes cast for and against an amendment at said election was for the amendment, then the same shall become a part of the Constitution of this Commonwealth, and shall be so proclaimed by the Governor, and published in such manner as the General Assembly may direct. Said amendments shall not be submitted at an election which occurs less than ninety days from the final passage of such proposed amendment or amendments. Not more than four amendments shall be voted upon at any one time. If two or more amendments shall be submitted at the same time, they shall be submitted in such manner that the electors shall vote for or against each of such amendments separately, but an amendment may relate to a single subject or to related subject matters and may amend or modify as many articles and as many sections of the Constitution as may be necessary and appropriate in order to accomplish the objectives of the amendment. The approval of the Governor shall not be necessary to any bill, order, resolution or vote of the General Assembly, proposing an amendment or amendments to this Constitution.

Section 257. Publication of proposed amendments. Before an amendment shall be submitted to a vote, the Secretary of State shall cause such proposed amendment, and the time that the same is to be voted upon, to be published at least ninety days before the vote is to be taken thereon in such manner as may be prescribed by law.
